LEAVENWORTH MAIN STREET PROGRAM RECEIVES DONATION FROM HALLMARK CORPORATE FOUNDATION

Leavenworth Main Street recently received a donation through the Hallmark Employee Volunteer Program on behalf of the significant volunteer hours that Meredith Timmons provides our organization. “We are thrilled that Hallmark Cards offers a program to reward employee volunteerism within our community and especially excited that Leavenworth Main Street is a recipient”, states Wendy Scheidt, executive director of LMS. Through Hallmark’s Volunteer Involvement Pays (VIP) program, Hallmark employees volunteer with local non-profit organizations and are then eligible to make a donation to that organization. Leavenworth Main Street is a 501 © 3 non-profit organization and is structured through the National Trust for Historic Preservation and is volunteer driven. “Everything we do within our organization is volunteer driven – hard working business people and local community folks giving of their time & talents for the betterment of the downtown community is what LMS is all about”, states Scheidt. “We encourage other Hallmark Cards employees to take a look at the numerous volunteer opportunities within the Leavenworth Main Street Program and sign up within Hallmark’s VIP program – a win/win for everyone!”.

We thank Meredith Timmons and Hallmark Cards for this opportunity.
