“We’re excited to have another great activity to offer the community and visitors during our November 2nd Saturday which is also Holiday Open House downtown”, states Marty Pope, event chair. “We filled the show space early and are encouraged that this will become an annual event”.

With 24 quality antique dealers, the show will offer attendees a broad spectrum of antiques & collectibles. Local dealers as well as many from the metropolitan area are participating and will be located in the Riverfront Community Center gymnasium. Home for the Holidays Antique Show is Saturday, November 12th, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., $3 admission.

The show will provide a great opportunity to do some holiday shopping early as well as an opportunity to purchase a new piece of two for your home, just in time for holiday decorating!
